To whom it may concern:

Rick Whatley of Old West Renovations has been responsible for selling doors and windows for Revy Home & Garden since the beginning of this year. During this time Rick has been supplying and installing a quality product for our installation program.

Old West Renovations has proven to be a reliable contractor who performs quality workmanship and superior customer service to each and every installation they have completed for us.

I would not hesitate to recommend Old West Renovations for any similar project.

Yours truly,

Gordon Edwards
Installed Sales Co-ordinator
